Description

Bar in the emblematic town of Bocairent, a rural tourist village known for its charm, built on stone, where your business will be different from the rest due to its natural beauty that makes it different. The local cave has all the necessary services for commercial use. It is in full operation, and with a wide and select commercial background. It has been open since 2002, operating uninterruptedly, with demonstrable profits. It is offered for sale or rent.
