Description

Magnificent estate built at the end of the 19th century. Its location places it near the center, near the main avenue of Albaida. Upon entering the farm we find a garden with palm trees, fir trees, pines and a water fountain in the center; on the other hand, we can observe the pool, the house and a patio with a double parking area.

Inside the house, on the ground floor we find a hall, two living rooms with fireplace, a fully equipped kitchen, a toilet and a patio; on the second floor we can find five rooms and a bathroom; and finally, on the third floor we observe three rooms.

Both exterior and interior carpentry is made of wood.

The type of soil it has is of great value, ceramic / hydraulic from the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century.
